

Moncton is the major city in the area. The marketing area is a tri-city community including Dieppe and Riverview. Members live in all three cities. The church meets in Riverview

The church meets in a house converted for the purpose. The space is small, but it is sufficient for the membership which is about 20 souls.

The men of the church met Tuesday night for Bible study and planning session.

A composite photo of the church assembly