

The first annual “Contending for THE Faith” lectureship was conducted in a very cold and rainy July. Lessons were taught in the tent and in the regular church meeting place: the converted house at right. Eight American preachers and local preacher Stephane Maillet preached thirty-three lessons from July 5th through 10th.

Our Chaparral found a comfortable home for the week in a crowded Campers City on the north side of Moncton.

We visited Fredericton, the capital of New Brunswick, for two days with a view to rebuilding the church there on a future visit.

We visited the church in Houlton, Maine. Only six local Christians were in attendance. Two other visitors, also staying in our campground, brought the total attendance to ten.
