

We are always welcomed with large banners. These also announce to the community our presence, and bring visitors for Bible study.

This view of the assembly of the church in Velvadam is typical of the churches we visit in the villages.

The director, two instructors, students of Krishna River Preacher-Training School, and a few area preachers

Straitgate Preaching School in Ambajipeta

A typical street scene in India

Some of the many imaginative Hindu idol that we see every day, and a Hindu temple in Vijayawada.

