The widows and orphans who are under the care of the Lord's church in Ibrahimpatnam are gathered here for the opening of the Chris Parr - Mariyamni Home for Orphans and Widows.

I cut the ribbon and Sybil was first to enter the new home for orphans and widows.

Every day we drive past this Hindu Temple at the edge of the city of Vijayawada.

The number who attended Sybil's ladies' class grew every day. She had been asked to prepare two classes. The ladies begged for more until she had taught six classes during our stay.
